- 50.5 Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of above Clause, on matters not covered by this Agreement, the provisions of RFP shall apply.

51 Force majeure

51.1 DEFINITION

For the purposes of this Agreement, “Force Majeure” means an event which is beyond the reasonable control of a Party, and which makes a Party’s performance of its obligations hereunder impossible or so impractical as reasonably to be considered impossible in the circumstances, and includes, but is not limited to, war, riots, civil disorder, earthquake, fire, explosion, storm, flood or other adverse weather conditions, strikes, lockouts or other industrial action (except where such strikes, lockouts or other industrial action are within the power of the Party invoking Force Majeure to prevent), confiscation or any other action by government agencies.

- 51.2 Force Majeure shall not include (i) any event which is caused by the negligence or intentional action of a Party or agents or employees, nor (ii) any event which a diligent Party could reasonably have been expected to both (A) take into account at the time of the conclusion of this Agreement, and (B) avoid or overcome in the carrying out of its obligations hereunder.
- 51.3 Force Majeure shall not include insufficiency of funds or failure to make any payment required hereunder.
- 51.4 No breach of agreement under Force majeure

The failure of a Party to fulfil any of its obligations hereunder shall not be considered to be a breach of, or default under, this Agreement insofar as such inability arises from an event of Force Majeure, provided that the Party affected by such an event has taken all reasonable precautions, due care and reasonable alternative measures, all with the objective of carrying out the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

51.5 Measures to be taken

- i. A Party affected by an event of Force Majeure shall take all reasonable measures to remove such Party's inability to fulfil its obligations hereunder with a minimum of delay.
- ii. A Party affected by an event of Force Majeure shall notify the other Party of such event as soon as possible, and in any event not later than 14 (fourteen) days following the occurrence of such event, providing evidence of the nature and cause of such event, and shall similarly give notice of the restoration of normal conditions as soon as possible.
- iii. The Parties shall take all reasonable measures to minimise the consequences of any event of Force Majeure.

51.6 Extension of time due to Force Majeure

Any period within which a Party shall, pursuant to this Agreement, complete any action or task, shall be extended for a period equal to the time during which such Party was unable to perform such action as a result of Force Majeure.

51.7 PAYMENTS due to Force Majeure

During the period of its inability to perform the Services as a result of an event of Force Majeure, the Bidder shall be entitled to be reimbursed for Additional Costs reasonably and necessarily incurred by it during such period for the purposes of the Services and in reactivating the Services after the end of such period.

51.8 CONSULTATION

Not later than 30 (thirty) days after the Bidder has, as the result of an event of Force Majeure, become unable to perform a material portion of the Services, the Parties shall consult with each other with a view to agreeing on appropriate measures to be taken in the circumstances.

52 DISPUTES

- a. If any dispute or difference or claims of any kind arises between the Parties in connection with implementation/ execution, interpretation or application of any terms and conditions or any matter or thing in any way connected with or in connection with or arising out of the Contract Agreement for the development of project on turnkey basis , or the rights, duties or liabilities of any Party under the Contract Agreement, whether before or after the termination of the Contract Agreement, then the Parties shall meet together promptly, at the request of any Party, in an effort to resolve such dispute, difference or claim by discussion between them. There shall be a Dispute Settlement Committee, which shall try to settle all disputes at the first stage.
- b. The Project Director, SPD shall chair the Dispute Settlement Committee. The authorized representative of the Agency will be allowed to participate in the Dispute Settlement procedure. If the Committee fails to resolve the issue within 30 (thirty) days of reference for amicable settlement, the parties will be free to redress it in the front of the Additional Chief Secretary, Higher Education, Government of Madhya Pradesh ,whose decision in this regard shall be final and binding on both the Parties.
- c. The existence of any dispute or reference of the same for redressal in any forum shall not absolve the Agency of its liability to continue make the payment as stipulated in the Contract Agreement.
